

Jeremy Branch joins Neel-Schaffer as Water Resources Engineer in Tennessee

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (August 29, 2022) – Neel-Schaffer, Inc., has hired Jeremy Branch, PE, CFM, to serve as a Water Resources Engineer in the firm’s Chattanooga (Tenn.) office.

Branch has more than 10 years of Water Resources Engineering experience, including six with the Albuquerque (N.M.) District of the US Army Corps of Engineers. Branch has joined Neel-Schaffer’s diverse group of Water Resources Engineers and will work on a variety of H&H analysis and drainage study/design projects for clients across our nine-state footprint.

“We are very excited to have Jeremy come aboard to add more strength and expertise to the company’s Water Resources group, while establishing our new H&H group in Chattanooga,” said Mike Phillips, PE, CFM, Neel-Schaffer’s H&H Discipline Lead. “We look forward to Jeremy getting involved in various Water Resources projects across the company.”

Branch is a Registered Professional Engineer and a Certified Floodplain Manager. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology.
