

Gary Enna joins Neel-Schaffer as Senior Project Manager in Texas

DALLAS, Texas (June 9, 2022) – Neel-Schaffer, Inc., is pleased to announce that Gary Enna has joined the firm and will serve as a Senior Project Manager based in the firm’s Dallas office.

Enna has 17 years of municipal experience as a Public Works Director and Assistant Public Works Director in the North Texas area. He recently served as Public Works Director for the City of Rowlett and from 2005-2016 he was the Assistant Director of Public Works for Collin County in McKinney.

Enna has extensive experience in the oversight of municipal projects involving engineering, water, wastewater, streets and roadways, facilities, drainage, and solid waste.

For Neel-Schaffer, he will help manage and support utility and transportation projects while also providing business development services in the North Texas region.

“We are extremely pleased to have Gary join our team at Neel-Schaffer,” said Derek Cheatham, PE, North Texas Operations Manager for Neel-Schaffer. “I have worked with Gary for many years as a client and always found him to be honest and driven to get work completed with exceptional management skills. I am looking forward now to working with him to help expand the services we offer to our clients in North Texas and in growing the Neel-Schaffer brand.”

Enna holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of North Texas. He has been a member of the American Public Works Association since 2005.
